Dear Commissioner for Patents:

PETITIONS OFFICE

We are referring to our recent application filed with the number: 09/973,459, titled: Integrated processes for olefin and polyolefin production.

This application has been affected by two adverse points as shown in the application copy which is enclosed.

1) The total filing fee included in the application of $355 is correct; because the application was mailed with certified mail and returned receipt on Sept. 24, 2001 (we enclose all of the post office receipts, Exhibit A). According to the PTO schedule of fees, the cost of filing our application ($355) was calculated based on the fee schedule valid before Oct. 1, 2001, because the application was submitted (mailed out) within this period of time. Therefore, the missing parts notice filed with this application is not applied to our case and the extra fees indicated ($15) are not applicable to the application. Based on the above we petition that the application is considered as a complete application (without missing parts) because the required by the law fee was included in the original mailing day of 9/24/2001.

2) This 09/973,459 non-provisional application covers (continues) a provisional application filed on 10/03/2000 with your Office (we attach the cover page of both applications). As we stated above, the mailing day of the new non-provisional application was Sept. 24, 2001 with certified mail (Postal receipts are enclosed by the US Post Office in Exhibit A, Exhibit B), which is 10 days before the expiration day of the previous filed provisional application. Based on these proofs of mailing we petition that the filing date be changed to the Sept. 24, 2001 for the new application 09/973,459.

Further, the prolonged delay in the delivery and filing of our recent non-provisional application was caused by factors which are out of our control, such as delays of the Postal Service to deliver the mail caused by the Sept. 11, 2001 events.

Thank you and we are looking forward to hearing from you soon regarding this petition for change of filing date according to the proof of mailing on Sept. 24, 2001.

Truly Yours,

Zoe Ziaka
